3. In G.O.4th read above, orders were issued creating a new Revenue functionary (Village Revenue Officer) in Revenue Department at the village level initially transferring 6752 Panchayat Secretaries who were originally Village Administrative Officers to Revenue Department. After transfer of the above posts to Revenue Department the cadre strength of Panchayat Secretaries posts in Panchayat Raj Department is 15,057.

4. Government have constituted a Group of Ministers in G.O.Rt.No.1916, Revenue (Ser.II) Department dated:26-11-2004 to study and recommend the Revenue and Panchayat Raj Administrative apparatus at the grass root level for an effective and good governance. The Group of Ministers, besides others, has recommended that the existing Revenue and Gram Panchayats should be arranged into Revenue Village Clusters and Panchayat Clusters and these Clusters should be Co-terminus as far as possible so that Revenue Department and Panchayat Raj Institutions are able to meet their respective staffing requirements to great extent by utilizing the functionaries that will be available after re-transferring the erstwhile staff of the Revenue Department. The Group of Ministers felt that while the ideal situation would be to have at least one Government functionary in each village, a realistic estimates of the work load, population to be served and the average distance which ordinary citizen would have to travel to meet this Governmental functionary need to be kept in mind while working out the new system. After studying the issue in detail, the Group of Ministers have recommended for formation of 12,395 Panchayat Clusters. In the G.O.5th read above, orders have been issued for formation of 12,395 Panchayat Clusters having 5000 population and 5 K.M. radius in plain areas and 2500 population and 2.5 K.M. radius in Hill areas. However the existing number of Gram Panchayats i.e. 21,809 shall remain the same.

5. Consequent on formation of Panchayat Clusters, it has become necessary for restructuring the administrative set-up at village level for effective functioning. Therefore, it has been decided to regroup the existing categories of Panchayat Secretaries into four (4) categories as follows:

1.	Panchayat Secretary Grade-I in the scale 7770-18575	Merging the post of Panchayat Secretary categories I,II and III
